

This comprehensive family life education program will help you and your child discuss the tough topics associated with growing up.

Developed for kids ages 11 and 12, and parents too, this informative and fun program is a memorable experience to share together. The fun, small group setting creates a comfortable, stress-free environment to share and learn.

Let thetalk help you prepare your child to make responsible choices that are consistent with your values and beliefs.

www.havingthetalk.com

1-800-505-3122
ext. 300